2. CITIZENS TO BE HEARD

- a. This is the Citizens to be Heard portion of the meeting. We ask that you come forward and state your name and address so that we may have that for the record. Our policy requires that you stay under three minutes so that others have time to be heard. Please direct all comments to Council as a whole and do not attempt to engage individual members of Council in debate. It is this Council's policy to follow through with you on your concern. Additionally, we ask that any groups that want to address the Council designate one spokesperson to represent the group and their comments. Again, this will ensure that others have time to be heard. Having said that, are there any citizens wishing to be heard.
